They're back...WPL's Collector's Ornament

Back in 2015, we began a tradition in creating a Willington Public Library's Collector's Ornament as a Fundraiser. Each year, the staff would create a different type of ornament for our patrons to collect.

This years ornament was made in memory of our beloved Guinea Pig "Ollie"

For a $5 donation, you will receive a beautifully hand-made ornament. They are located at the Coffee Bar and are displayed on our Christmas tree.

Be sure to add this to your collection!

We would like to thank two of our volunteers, Nancy Ferlow and Kaelin Bedan for all their help, time, and creativity in making this beautiful ornament.

Happy Holidays to you and yours!

Connecticut Pieces for Peace Traveling Exhibition

Connecticut Pieces for Peace is a traveling exhibition sponsored by the Curriculum of Hope for a Peaceful World which is a standing committee of the Connecticut State organization of DKG (Delta Kappa Gamma), an international organization of Key Women Educators.

The CT Pieces for Peace was inspired by CITYarts Pieces for Peace projects of New York City. CITYarts.Inc is a global arts organization connecting youth in 120 COUNTRIES on 6 CONTINENTS and who to date, has received more than 11,000 ARTWORKS from over 1,500 SCHOOLS and community organizations.

Through the “PIECES FOR PEACE” project, youth from across Connecticut have voiced their hopes for peace through their artwork in workshops where they create artwork in response to the question “WHAT DOES PEACE LOOK LIKE TO ME?” Artwork was submitted using any medium in a 6” X 6” format. Thirty pieces were framed and became the traveling exhibition. All students who participated in this project had the opportunity to display their artwork on the Alpha Kappa State website where they can be viewed.

We are fortunate to have some of this artwork now on display throughout the Willington Public Library. We hope you will take this opportunity to see through the eyes of our young people, what peace looks like to them and perhaps join in to create your own image of “What PEACE looks like to YOU!” ALL AGES are welcome and encouraged to participate. Here until Saturday, January 14, 2024.
